Ingrid Weiss

Global Nutrition and Food Systems Specialist

Food Systems and Nutrition Specialist with 15 years of project management experience

weiss.ingrid@gmail.com

Linkedin

Contact

15 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Ingrid is a global food systems and nutrition specialist with more than 15 years' experience analyzing, designing, and implementing programs and strategies at the intersection of agriculture and nutrition. Demonstrated ability to lead strategic planning, programming and decision making to advance multi-sectoral programs to improve diet and nutrition outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia. Skilled coalition builder and collaborative leader with a high degree of diplomacy. Experienced grant and contract manager with a current Federal Acquisition Certification in Contracting (FAC-C) Level II. US citizen with an active secret security clearance.

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management; Proposal Writing; Other: Diets and nutrition; Strategic Planning; Grants Management; Policy Development; Agriculture & Food Security

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Public Health; Economic Growth

Languages Spoken:

English, French

JOIN US